

Waves of Glory"

Song of the Spirit - Sung by Ian Fleury, June 14, 09

Waves of Glory coming from His Throne
Waves of Glory coming from His Throne
Rivers, streams of life, coming from His Throne Waves of Glory, one after another Your waves of Glory, waves of Mercy coming from your Throne The River is flowing, flowing here on earth But it is coming from your Throne The River is flowing. Rivers of your Glory and they are coming from your Throne

Step into the River, taste of your mercy
We behold the Glory coming from your Throne Step into the River, wade in deeper, deeper Lord, we want your Glory to wash over us Step into the River The River is flowing, flowing mightily

Don't want to miss this River Beaming with Life, coming from your Throne
