

“All is Well”

Utterance by Pastor Gary Bitely Nov. 15, 2009

All is well, all is well. All is well for My children that walk with Me and are planted with me and know My voice and know My Spirit and know My Word. For all is well. But in the world all is not well, all is not well in the things of the earth and the people of the earth, the government, and the nations, even in nature what the world calls nature, even all is not well there. For you shall see even in a short time that nature shall even begin to rebel, even nature will begin to quake and to shake. For have I not said even in My word that there is yet a shaking that will come and that shaking will shake all. For all is well if you're walking with Me, all is well if you have based your life upon the rock and are standing upon the rock.

But many even that call themselves Christians have built their lives upon church attendance, they've built their lives upon doing good things, good deeds. All these things are well, but there is a rock that you have to stand upon for when you stand upon that rock, that rock cannot be shaken. You will need to know Me in these last days. For men shall grow worse and worse, they shall wax worse and worse, nations will turn even more wickedly against other nations; disease and pestilence shall arise and sweep across the world. Even now as we see this pandemic, its nothing compared to that which is coming. And yet those that walk with Me, all is well, all is well. You'll need not to be concerned about what is happening in the earth or even around you because you are anchored to the rock and that rock cannot be moved. Everything else will be moved and removed. But you shall stand saith the Lord. Hallelujah!
