

“Let Him Reign”
Utterance by Pastor Bitely, Nov. 1, 2009

Down in my spirit I heard these words: Indeed, the Lord does reign. For I reign in heaven. But it is down here that I long too reign in your life. For you will have to surrender all of your life for Me to reign in all of your life. You allow Me to reign in little portions, but will you allow Me to reign over all of your life, from the inward to the outward? Will you allow Me to reign in your home? Will you allow Me to reign in your marriage? Will you allow Me to reign in your health and in your finances and even in your work? Will you allow Me to reign and have full control? For many will sing and say: Lord, you do reign and yet I say unto you: I do not. Not in all, for there are areas that you can still surrender. For have I not said: Cast all of your cares upon Me for I careth for you and yet many are worried and concerned and troubled and yet I do not reign in that area because you have it. You have not allowed Me to reign. You would like Me to, but you still hold on to these things. But if you would give them to Me, if you would but surrender, make an opening and a way for Me to come in, then I indeed will reign and things will be taken care of and you shall rise and you shall prosper and you shall walk in that which I have prepared for you, saith the Lord.
