

"Be Anchored"

Utterance by Pastor Bitely, Dec 20, 2009

For the Word of the Lord came unto me saying: "Harken!!! Listen!!! Listen to what is about to be said. For many are looking and they are concerned about what lies ahead in 2010. Many want to know what will happen, what will it be like? For I say unto you: This is the time for you to be anchored. You need to be anchored secure in My Word. Many are not. Many are anchored into the flesh. Many are anchored into the world. Many are anchored into the strength of their mind and the strength of their back and their arm. But I say unto you: In 2010, you need to be anchored in Me. Anchored in My Word. For the storms are about to come. And the storms, if you are not anchored, you will not be able to hold when the storms come. But if you are anchored in Me," saith the Lord, "you will not have any problems. You will sail through. You will make it through with flying colors. And you will make it and you will rejoice. But be certain that you are anchored in Me. Be certain you are anchored in My Word. Do not take this lightly.

For if you do, then you are not anchored in Me," saith the Lord. "You are anchored in yourself, in what you want and what you desire. But if you will look to Me and you will harken unto Me, even in this hour," saith the Lord. "Be anchored in Me. Be anchored in My Word. You will not be moved," saith the Lord.
