

"Rejoicing"

Utterance by Pastor Bitely, Dec 20, 09

I heard the Spirit say, "there is much rejoicing in heaven this hour. For heaven is knowing that the time of the coming of My son is soon at hand. It is rejoicing because it knows My children are coming home. So rejoice and be glad even in the midst of the darkness, even in the midst of the storms, rejoice, rejoice and be exceedingly glad knowing that the plan of God is about to be fulfilled totally as God as planned it. So rejoice and be exceedingly glad knowing that which has been prepared for you God will bring you to it, in Jesus name. Amen"
